Class Poem

CYNTHIA ANN BOWDEN and ROBERT WILLIAM DUNN

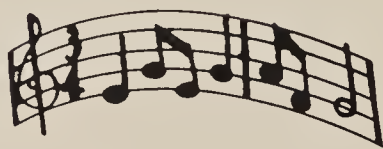

*As our class progresses through the years,
May we always remember, in joy and tears,
The many hours in happiness shared,
The knowledge learned from those who cared
In Medfield High,
The friends and teachers, day by day,
Who've helped us all in every way;
And, though we leave these halls behind us,
We'll ne'er forget the ties that bind us
To Medfield High.*

Class Motto

If God be for us, who can be against us.

Class Song

GLORIA GRACE TUCKER and LOIS ANN HARMON

*To Medfield High we say good-bye
The Class of '53.
We've always been together
And good friends we'll always be.
Of those we leave behind us
Fond memories remain,
Good-luck to you, the friends so true
From the Class of '53.*

Class History

FRESHMEN

In September of 1949, thirty-three nervous students entered the Freshman Class. The Juniors welcomed us October 17th with the Freshman Initiation. Needless to say, everyone had a splendid time.

Miss McGrath was our homeroom teacher and advisor.

President .....	PATRICIA STEAD
Vice President .....	DONNA MAKER
Secretary .....	SALLY COLANTONIO
Treasurer .....	JUDY BALLOU

Later in the year Mrs. Washburn took the class to Norfolk prison, to view Prison conditions.

At the end of the year the class was depleted by the leaving of Patricia McLucas, Alan Gronroos, James Brock and Thomas Clarke.

SOPHOMORE

We came back from our summer vacation to enter our Sophomore year with thirty-three students. John D'Antonio, John Smith, Wayne Rawding and Dorothy Clark were the newcomers.

President .....	RICHARD FENTON
Vice President .....	DONNA MAKER
Secretary .....	JANET MEZZANOTTE
Treasurer .....	ROBERT COX

That year we ordered our class rings from the Balfour Company. On one side of the ring is the Peak House and on the other side is the Auditorium.

The class gave Marcia Withington a going away party as she was moving to Dedham. The party was at Shirley Gronberg's house and everyone had a good time.

JUNIOR

Our class officers were as follows:

President .....	JEANINE BRAVO
Vice President .....	CLIFFORD BOSSELMAN
Secretary .....	JANET MEZZANOTTE
Treasurer .....	JOAN MICK

We initiated the Freshmen on October 9, 1951.

Our Junior Prom was held May 2, 1952. King and Queen were chosen and the honors were given to Shirley Gronberg and Donny Cox.

We had several other outside activities such as paper drives and record hops.

May 26, we gave the Junior-Senior Banquet and everyone had a good time at the Record Hop which followed.

SENIOR

Twenty-two pupils entered in September as Seniors this year. John D'Antonio and Charles Evans left to join the service.

The class officers were:

President .....	RICHARD FENTON
Vice President .....	CLIFFORD BOSSELMAN
Secretary .....	SALLY COLANTONIO
Treasurer .....	CYNTHIA BOWDEN

We held several paper drives and were given a lot of help by the townspeople.

We had a Record Hop with Stan Morgan from WARA in Attleboro.

December 5th was the Senior Play, "Our Miss Brooks," which was enjoyed by all.

December 19th Bob Clayton came out to M.H.S. and the Hop was a great success.

April 6th the Mothers Club sponsored a Minstrel Show under the direction of Tom Sweeney.

April 18th, we started for Washington, D. C. We took the B&O Tours and toured through New York City, Washington, D. C., and Virginia. Our chaperones were Miss McGrath, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Richardson and Mr. McLin. We thought this trip was well worth while.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held on June 3. Everyone enjoyed the reading of the Class Will, Prophecy, History and the singing of the Class Song. The dinner was delicious and was followed by a record hop.

We have yet to experience our graduation.

Class Prophecy of 1953

I gazed out the window as I was relaxing in the Royal Blue bound for Washington, D. C. It brought back memories to think of the class trip ten years ago when everyone was having such a good time on the train, but now it's just a lonely, quiet trip.

Through my hardships and struggling disappointments I have built the largest, most prosperous Art Advertising Agency of its kind in the country. My concern is the well-known "Back Alley and Junk Yard, Sluper Billboard and Stupistic Painting Service." In fact DOT CLARK, who has made millions as the founder of Clarkie Candy Bar, is one of my best advertisers for my Sluper Billboards.

At the station I had no more set foot off the train when I noticed a smartly dressed young woman walking briskly towards me. Well, if it wasn't JEANINE "the old Pro" BRAVO. She told me that she recently started a column in Bachelors' Views entitled, "Advice for the Lovelorn."

As we talked over old times we both agreed that it would be wonderful if we could re-live the Washington trip with all of our former classmates.

Jeanine suggested that we say hello to RUTH PICCOTT, who is now the head clerk of the Carlyle Information Bureau. As usual she was singing that old, old favorite of hers, "By the Light of DeSilva-ry Moon." Ruth informed us that we should eat at MARY'S KITCHEN, just around the corner, where foods for all sizes are served. We told MARY that she should try to live up to what she preaches. "If you're thin, you'll stay trim, if you're fat, you'll contract!" is her slogan.

Since we had a free evening and nothing to do, Mary gave us two tickets to the Annual Horticultural Show. The feature attraction was BOSSELMAN'S unusual and valuable display of domestic skunk cabbage (now being used as a deodorant for insane asylums) and skinless bananas (to reduce sidewalk accidents).

Jeanine and I made arrangements for the next day when we were to meet in front of the Capitol.

I went straight to the Hamilton Hotel where I had my reservation. For a little relaxation before retiring, I turned on the radio hoping to get some nice soft, sweet music when a commercial blasted me in the ear. "Is your hair fading when it should be flaming; buy JUDITH'S Flame Rain Shampoo for dead red hair!" After this very important twenty-minute announcement came the newest recording in classical music, "If a Horse Had Your Brains, He'd Still Be a Horse." A piano and vocal number by Pony Tail TUCKER.

I decided to get some sleep since I promised Jeanine I would meet her in front of the Capitol the next morning.

As I reached the Capitol, the young, sharp-looking politician, "Mouse for the House" WESTON was there disseminating to his future supporters knowledge of his policy that "What this country needs is fewer people telling us what this country needs."

Jeanine approached with two more familiar faces. CYNTHIA was now a nurse, specializing in the care of gossiping parrots and LOIS was now working in a local hospital as a demonstrator for an anti-nosebleed apparatus which enables patients to stop nosebleeds by standing on their heads until their hearts stop beating.

We decided to take a brief tour through the commercial quarter of Washington. As we were strolling along the sidewalk we were trampled by a mad stampede of people rushing towards the Hamilton Hotel. Out of a taxi came two beautiful competitors for the Miss Cherry Blossom contest. As we approached we were shocked at the sight before us—and what a sight!! There was RICHARD, “Money Bags, Flash,” FENTON, himself, taking posed pictures of these two beauties who turned out to be, SALLY—the new movie rage, billed as “The Marine Pin-Up Girl,” and JOAN MICK, of the Daisy Mae Model Agency.

Class Prophecy of 1953

After the crowd cleared away, we went over and congratulated DICK on his fine technique of posing the two girls. He said he was going to have NORRIS swing a bill in Congress, which would permit this pose of the two beauties to be on the next year's currency.

To rest our weary feet and at the same time enjoy some good laughs, we decided to take in the picture at the Paramount. If it weren't for the now famous comedian, our little MEZZ, starring in “Jungle Bunny Jan” we never would have waited so long for our tickets. But since we really wanted to see the show, we put up with about fifty small grade children who were blackening each other's eyes, and one such brat nearly gave me a hot foot. Enough of this nonsense, I was just about to complain to the teachers in charge, when I was amazed to find that DONNA and SHIRLEY were now the grade teachers in Washington and it was Class Riot Day for their pupils.

During intermission, we went into the lobby for a coke. There seemed to be a little disturbance at the soda fountain between the soda jerk and a WAC who was pounding on the counter with a coke bottle, “gimme anada one!” I recognized her voice as RUTH McKINNON who was in Washington recruiting men for the Women's Air Corps.

After the show we headed back for the hotel to take in a floor show in the ballroom. On our way in we noticed on the billboard the current attraction: MILLER'S Ballet Ensemble doing the newest version of the “Dead Duck.”

Before going into the ballroom, I called the desk and left a message to take any calls I might receive. LENA happened to be working at the switchboard and recognized me instantly.

When I met BOB in the lobby we made plans to notify all of our former classmates of our special Reunion, to be held in Room 615 of the Hamilton Hotel.

This time there was no need for House Detectives and chaperons, although we really missed the deviltry that took place ten years ago!!!

JEANINE ANN BRAVO
ROBERT WILLIAM DUNN

Class Will

We, the inmates of cell number 203, being pardoned after four years of chastisement, do hereby leave our remains to the following:

Item: To the Seventh grade, we leave our ability to sneak up the back stairs.

Item: To the Eighth grade, we leave an extra “arm” to scribble down Mrs. Washburn’s long science sentences.

Item: To the Freshman class, we leave the knack of stealing in front of the Seniors in lunch line.

Item: To the Sophomore class, we leave the ability to be quiet at lunch.

Item: To the Juniors, we leave the sixth floor of the Hamilton Hotel, plus one well used fire escape.

Item: To Miss McGrath, we leave an identification card so the Hotel Detectives won’t escort her to her room.

Item: To Mr. Mains, the girls leave an alarm clock so he won’t miss any of those dates under the bridge.

Item: To Mrs. Potter, her “business kids” leave a red dress to brighten up her classes, as her “sunshine gang” is leaving.

Item: To Mr. Hastings, we leave a nefarious-neurotic to straighten out next year.

Item: To Mrs. Richardson, we leave a speedboat with a handsome driver.

Item: To Mrs. Warburton, we leave John “Einstein” O’Leary as assistant in next year’s chemistry class.

Item: To Mr. Foley, Judy Ballou leaves her secret for covering up those cute red blushes.

Item: To Mrs. Washburn, Roberta Miller leaves a book on the fine art of ballet for her next play.

Item: To Mrs. Lambson, we leave a gallon of paint for a well used "Chevvy."

Item: To Mrs. Pederzini, we leave Frank Agnello to help in French Class.

Item: To Mr. Shaw, we leave a new set of ear-drums for next year's shop class.

Item: To Mr. McLin, we leave a hidden microphone system just in case someone chops his grapevine down.

Item: To Mrs. Kingsbury, we leave a free pass to take lessons at the Blue Hills Riding Academy, seeing it is her favorite sport.

Item: To Pat Hastings, Ruth Piccott leaves her innocent blue eyes.

Item: To Joan Coombs, Cynthia Bowden leaves her position, working with Jack Wilson at Lord's.

Item: To Roger Dunn, his brother, Bob, leaves his ability to make people think he's bashful.

Item: To Betty McClellan, Sally Colantonio leaves her excuses to stay home nights to write letters.

Item: To Rosalind Kennedy, Mary Curry leaves her ability to always have a date.

Item: To Chuck Munroe, Jeanine Bravo leaves her "dynamic-tension."

Item: To Frannie Brown, Donna Maker leaves all her year-book headaches.

Item: To Susie Kennedy, Shirley Gronberg leaves a faster route to get to Millis.

Item: To Marcia Newell, "Dotty" Clark passes down her title of giggles.

Item: To Margaret Malloy, Lois Harmon leaves her athletic ability.

Item: To Gary Fraser, Dick Fenton leaves his nickname of "pretty boy."

Item: To next year's cashier, Lena Lamb leaves her worries of making the Seniors pay for their lunch.

Item: To Thelma Stevens, Ruth McKinnon leaves her full supply of jokes for use in a study period.

Item: To Renny De Forest, Janet Mezz leaves her football equipment.

Item: To Kenny Carpenter, Joan Mick leaves a new driver to take him home nights, when she is in school.

Item: To Norman Rossi, Cliff Bosselman leaves his job at Pederzini's.

Item: To her sister, Peggy, Gloria Tucker leaves a rather long list of Sherborn telephone numbers and hopes that Peggy will make as much use of them as she did.

Item: To Bill Reynolds, Norris Weston leaves his roller skating talent.

Item: Last but not least, the Senior class leaves to Charlie Evans, a permanent membership.

This instrument was on the day hereof signed, published, and declared by said testators Class of 1953 to be our Last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at our request have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses in our presence and in presence of each other.
